

Celebrations

Rev. Nancy Norman, of the Unity Church of Delray Beach, chats with Rev. Dr. Blaine Mays, CEO of the conference sponsor, as the church hosted the International New Thought Alliance conference April 22-25. The church was selected to host because the INTA considers it a prime example of success while following the original tenets of Unity movement co-founders Myrtle and Charles Fillmore. Those include free-will offerings out of love for the church and its teachings rather than fund-raising or soliciting pledges. The conference highlighted practical applications of universal spiritual principles and included a panel discussion, 'The Path Taken: One Destination...Many Paths.'
